How does mundane astrology work?

- Mundane astrology uses a chart, but instead of the chart being for an individual, it is drawn up for a nation or country. Like a personal horoscope, a chart can be drawn up for a nation or country by using a particularly important date such as an official inauguration or a leader's birth.
- In the case of the United States, the most popular chart used is the Sibyl chart – based upon the time the constitution was purportedly signed.

Outer Planet Energies

Jupiter Conjunct Saturn in Aquarius

- Great Conjunctions occur regularly (every 19.6 years, on average). This has become known as the 20-year cycle of Jupiter and Saturn.
- The Aquarian energy of this aspect brings in fixed mental energy. Focus efforts on innovation and new technologies.
- A concern about this intense Conjunction is that the expansion of Jupiter will feed the need of Saturn to control the mental energies of groups or organizations. This reinforces “group think” and propaganda.

Outer Planet Energies

- Uranus in Taurus – Dynamic influences on countries resources and finances (5th house). Bringing foundation and form to the new ideas and changes that were initiated in Aries. Country's speculations are steady with fluctuations grounded in Taurus. Enjoyment and public happiness improve from practical application of innovation, leading to increased wages and steady development for country. Dedicated resources to fulfilling goals. Infrastructure, construction, and organization are key. (5th House)
- Neptune in Pisces – Sympathetic and charitable, deep emotions, highly mystical and spiritual energy, voyages, strange experiences, could have times of dispair. Neptune is in the U.S. 3rd house, highlighting the need for factual and accurate communications. Plans for improved transportation could be created but need to be realistic. (3rd House)
- Pluto in Capricorn – Structure given to power and authority, organization to large groups, autocratic, engaged in large actions. Bureaucracies and hidden groups try to gain and exercise power and influence. Country's financial organization are in the spotlight, including the Federal Reserve and their actions. (2nd house)

God created the Deck,
These are the Universal Principles.
They guide us All
God is the Divine Dealer,
All his Creations are the players.
God can deal the hand God wishes -
Or Desires.

When God deals a special card
We have or experience a miracle,
Or a new Universe can be born
God is the Divine Dealer.
Sometimes through Will and Heart –
We get to replay our cards,
Or get a new card dealt,
God doesn't roll dice
But God deals the Cards –
We must All play the Hand we are Dealt.
